Earlier this month, Sheriff Scott Mascher honored 6 law enforcement personnel for their combined total of 120 years of service to the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office. The employees come from various assignments around the agency including Patrol Sgt. (Wachter), Criminal Investigation Sgt. (Williams), Patrol Lt. In front of staff, family, and friends, Sheriff Mascher individually acknowledged their dedication to service with the agency and various accomplishments over the years. The Sheriff noted that the ability to retain experienced personnel benefits not only the Sheriff's Office, but those we serve.

The Sheriff would also like to thank Board of Supervisors Chairman Rowle Simmons and County Administrator Phil Bourdon for their presence at the ceremony.
